THURSDAY, SEPT. 29, 1870.

Republican State Ticket.
For Secretary of State, MAX. F. A. HOFFMAN.
For Auditor of State, JOHN D. EVANS.
For Treasurer of State, ROBERT H. MILROY.
For Superintendent of Public Instruction, BARNABAS C. HOBBS.
For Attorney-General, NELSON TRUSLER.
For Judges of the Supreme Court, First District—JERRY T. ELIOTT.
Second—CHARLES A. RAY.
Third—ROBERT C. GREGORY.
Fourth—ANDREW L. OSBORNE.
For Congress, GEN. JOHN COBURN.

The Banner is guilty of misrepresentation when it asserts that we "refused to publish Mr. Bridges' reply to the attacks made in last week's Press." Mr. B. is at all times welcome to our advertising space, and we have offered to publish his reply to Mr. Bridges' card gratuitously, providing it was the last request of the kind he would make of us.—Press.

Our information came from Mr. Bridges himself. He says that nothing was said about advertising, and that Briggs made no offer to him to publish his reply, providing it was the last. On the contrary he positively refused to publish it, just as he had done a previous article. And it is a pretty pass when Democrats are denied a hearing in the Press, unless they appear in the advertising columns! Such a proposition would be an insult.

The Press and the Danville Union are acting contrary to all rules of honorable journalism in their attempts to prevent the people from being heard in self defense, and thus prove to the world that they are serving a bad cause. It is a species of tyranny that is wholly out of place in this free country.

This paper has adopted a different course, and gives all a fair hearing, either friend or foe, on any subject affecting the public, when they come in the proper spirit. It is published in the interest of no Ring, but for the people.

It is difficult to understand why so many persons persist in going abroad to purchase anything that can be bought or made at home. In doing so they injure the community in which they live far more than the difference in the price of the articles purchased would amount to. And the same rule holds good in regard to the employment of mechanics. The following, taken from an exchange, gives our views on this subject exactly:

Is it not the plain duty of all to encourage home enterprise, and home industry? If you will take a look at the fine structures in this city, erected by mechanics who reside with us, you will find that they are equal, and in many cases superior to those made by those mechanics from abroad. So it is with fine buggies, fine harness, and many other articles that may be named. A short time ago a gentleman went from this city to Chicago, to get a large amount of printing done, and after taking a look at the style of the work, learning prices, &c., he like a sensible gentleman, returned to this city, and ordered his printing done here, because—First, he could get the work done as cheap, if not cheaper. Second, he could get it done better, and promptly at the time he wanted it done. Third, it could always be under his personal supervision; and, fourth, he was encouraging home enterprise. This last is a motive that ought to govern all in the employment of mechanics. The money is thus kept at home, and if all would follow this rule, you would seldom find mechanics complaining of a lack of work. Certainly this is the correct principle. We have first-class mechanics. Employ them.

The Republicans in other parts of the State are conducting the campaign with great activity. Vice President Colfax has canvassed a large part of the State, and will speak again at Danville to-morrow. Senators Sherman, Morton and Pratt have also made numerous speeches, all with the most excellent effect. The issues are now made up, and it only remains for the people to go to the polls promptly one week from next Tuesday, and vote for correct principles. Neglect to do this may endanger our Congressional and State tickets, and we therefore urge upon all the necessity of going to the polls early and seeing that the full Republican vote is cast.

Has the Press yet seen any of those Germans that it expected would run away from their native land to avoid the war? We have been looking for them, but they don't come.

Senator Morton has been appointed Minister to England.

Floyd Township.
FLOYD TOWNSHIP, PUTNAM COUNTY, IND.,
Sept. 26th, 1870.

Pursuant to a call of the "Committee," the Republican party of Floyd township met in convention at Center School House on Saturday, the 24th inst., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the various township offices to be filled at the coming October election.

The convention became organized and proceeded to business by electing S. A. Hall, President, and Greg. Allen, Secretary. After a few remarks by the President, the convention proceeded to the selection of candidates, with the following result: For Trustee, A. F. Wright; Assessor, W. H. Rice; Justices of the Peace, D. T. Summers and Isaac Cartwright; Constables, Cornelius Kurtz and Simeon Wright.

The following committee on resolutions was appointed by the President: Dr. J. H. Robinson, W. H. Rice, Wm. Aldridge and Greg. Allen.

After an interesting speech, by Dr. J. H. Robinson, the committee reported the following resolutions which were unanimously adopted:

1st. Resolved, That we, the Republican party of Floyd township, are determined to stand united.

2nd. Resolved, That we earnestly and freely endorse the action of the Republican Central Executive Committee of Putnam county, in nominating Capt. M. A. Osborn for Joint Representative of the counties of Putnam and Hendricks.

3rd. Resolved, That we most heartily endorse the record made by Capt. Osborn, while a member of the Legislature, believing sincerely that he labored faithfully and efficiently for the best interests of his constituents.

4th. Resolved, That we disapprove the course of the Greencastle Banner and H. B. Martin, in the efforts to divide and defeat the Republican party.

5th. Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be published in the Greencastle Banner and Hendricks County Union.

STANLEY A. HALL, President.
GREG. ALLEN, Secretary.

REMARKS BY THE BANNER.

In his resolution in reference to the Banner, Dr. Robinson is evidently endeavoring to retaliate for our refusal, some weeks ago, to allow him, in an anonymous communication published in this paper, to impose himself upon our readers as a member of the Central Committee. The Secretary of the convention neglects to inform us whether the call for the meeting had been properly circulated. Certainly we have seen no notice in the newspapers which come under our observation, of any such proposed meeting. And it would also have been well to have informed us of the number of persons present. But, be that as it may, it seems that a Republican convention has been held in Floyd township, which nominated candidates for the several township offices, and then proceeded to disapprove of the course of the Banner in asking that the Republicans in the entire county have this same privilege of assembling together in convention and nominating a candidate for Joint Representative. These gentlemen have just exercised a right, which they hasten to deny to others.

A beautiful specimen of consistency, truly!

And, again, if our demand for a county convention has a tendency to divide the party, have you not already divided it in your township by holding a convention and nominating a ticket? You have already done that which we merely ask for! And if it is proper for a committee to nominate a ticket, rather than a convention, why, O men of Floyd, did you not allow your township committee to nominate your township ticket, instead of calling a convention for that purpose?

"Gentlemen of the convention," don't you feel that, by listening to false representations, you have been betrayed into doing a very foolish thing?

It requires only a very little amount of intelligence to know that the way to prevent division in our party, is for us to meet in convention, and there let the majority decide on all questions of difference. And it is those who prevent this opportunity being given, who are the disorganizers. "Come, let us reason together," and let the minority submit to the majority, is all that we have asked for, in behalf of those who demand that right. "If this be treason, make the most of it!"

It is your privilege, to endorse the record of M. A. Osborn, if you wish to, and it is no part of our business to proscribe you for doing so, though we must say it would have been judicious to have looked into the journals of the last Legislature and ascertained exactly what that record is, without taking any man's word for it. We, also, claim the same privilege, and, knowing Mr. Osborn's record as we do, can not endorse it. Faithfully to him, nor any other man, is no part of our political faith, and should it ever become so, we will then cease to be a Republican.

In this matter, as in all others, we are governed by our convictions of right. Our conscience and our judgment are our own, and are in no man's keeping. This is still a free country, and slavery is dead, and the occupation of the slave-driver is gone. We boast that this is the land of a free press, and that it is the guardian of our liberties. To make it such, it must not be muzzled by the mad ambition of office-seekers, or the power of moneyed corporations. As it stands by the people, so must they stand by it, and when they cease to do so, it will be a sad day for the country.

In conclusion, we still insist, with Dr. Robinson's permission, that a county convention ought to have been held, just as the above convention has been held in Floyd township, believing that it would have prevented the unfortunate condition which now exists in the Republican party. Can any real friend of the party think otherwise?

Who is He?
An individual who had imbibed too much Terre Haute "forty rod" machine, and hailing from Greencastle, had an interview with His Hon. Mayor Cookery, Wednesday morning, in regard to a disturbance of which it was alleged he was the principal instigator, which resulted in the individual aforesaid being charged $2.50 for consultation fees, &c., which he refused to pay until the officers were conducting him to a "free lunch" at Stewart's Hotel, when he "came to time." He had over two hundred dollars in his pocket at the time.—T. H. Mail.

In Chicago, last week, while some boys were playing base ball, a lad named John O'Grady, aged thirteen years, was struck in the pit of the stomach by a ball and almost instantly killed. He neither spoke nor scarcely breathed after he was hit.

Frank Darnall Called Out.
GREENCASTLE, Sept. 27, 1870.

Editor Greencastle Banner.—The Hendricks County Union having refused to publish the accompanying communication, I ask space for the same in your columns. My name, for reasons unknown to me, has been logged into the controversy between Capt. Osborn and Capt. Martin, and this is my only apology for appearing in the public prints. Yours truly,
FRANK DARNALL.

GREENCASTLE, IND., Sept. 26th, 1870.
Editor Hendricks County Union.—In your issue of 22nd inst., there is a communication written from this place, signed "Radical," in which, from some cause, he sees fit to use my name; and, as there are some matters connected therewith that are designed to mislead the Republican party in your County, I beg space in your columns to reply. In regard to the Republican Convention of this county in 1866, the memory of your correspondent is very defective.

Radical says—"Mr. Martin pressed his claim, and Greencastle Township at one time agreed to vote for him." If Mr. Martin pressed his claims in that Convention, it was not known to the convention, only to those who represented him, of whom "Radical" was not the least conspicuous. Greencastle Township did vote for him repeatedly in that Convention. I was in that Convention, and supported Mr. Daggy, believing he would accept the position, which he afterwards did. Radical says, "Frank Darnall and other prominent Republicans were so hostile toward him (Martin) on account of his opposition to Gov. Morton, Millt. Cooper and other Republicans, that it was thought we had better make no nomination at all. The Convention afterwards, over the protest of Messrs. Daggy and McMurray, nominated them." Now, if Radical knows anything about it at all, he knows this is a perversion and was gotten up for the occasion. "Thought we had better make no nomination at all!" There was no action of that convention from which any one could infer (Radical not excepted) that they thought any such thing. The Convention was regular. Mr. Martin, instead of pressing his claim, withdrew his name when the balloting began. There was no other business transacted by the convention, until after the nominations were made. Again, he says, "Martin could not carry a single township in the county before a Republican Convention, and he knows it." What prophetic wisdom! Can it be that Radical's judgment is as defective as his memory?

If Mr. Martin was so unpopular why did not Radical as a member of the Central Committee, use his influence to call a convention, and dispose of this little monster at once? If bare statements were evidence, I would say that it would require less effort for Capt. Martin to carry a single township before a Republican Convention, than it did to hold "Radical" to the work whilst Andy Johnson was making his pilgrimage, bestowing his gifts to the people, for, in the eyes of our friend, some things hath their charms, as well as they doeth to others.

In regard to Capt. Martin rushing into the field as "independent," it is only necessary, to prove the falsity of this statement, to refer to his card in the Union, Putnam Republican Banner, and his correspondence with Capt. Osborn. In each he positively states, "subject to the decision of a Republican Convention if one be held."

Again, Radical says—"The Democracy brought him out." This is also not true, and is only intended for us away from home. Again, "Martin's well known record in this county will always prevent him from receiving the vote of true Republicans." False again. In 1867 Capt. Martin received the Republican nomination for Auditor of this county, and at the election received the full vote of the party; even Radical, again, making the people believe he was one of his supporters.

As to the charge of Martin's connection with the Breckenridge Party, it is the clap trap made use of by the Democracy in 1867, and was then proved to have been false.

Why is it that "Radical" now charges that which the Republicans of this county said was a lie in 1867? I can't tell unless he has "seen" somebody.

He speaks of the remarks made by the Hon. Joseph Fordice before the Central Committee, and quotes him almost correct, except the coloring. Indeed, was it the last paragraph in his communication. I would look upon it as a favorable omen, thinking his conversion probable. But if Radical desires to give the people of Hendricks county a fair and honorable statement of the situation, why not give the statements of all the Central Committee who were present and addressed them at that meeting. Mr. Craig of Monroe, said Mr. Osborn could not carry one-third of the Republican votes in his township. Capt. Wimmer, of Madison, said there was dissatisfaction in his township, but could not tell to what extent. Dr. Dunnington, of Cloverdale, said, Capt. Osborn could not carry one-fourth the Republican vote in his township. Mr. Dollarhide, of Greencastle, had not sufficient information to give an opinion as to the extent of the dissatisfaction. These, with Mr. Fordice, are all the members of the Central Committee who testified in regard to the feelings of Republicans concerning the candidate for Joint Representative. Take the testimony—prove what it will.

Radical says, "The Committee decided on a vote of ten to two to stand by their former action." Now, what are the facts? There was but one motion before that Committee at the session in question, (besides the motion to adjourn) and that was offered by Mr. Craig, of Monroe, and was as follows: "Whereas, it is not deemed advisable by the Central Committee of Putnam County to call a convention, and, as some dissatisfaction exists in regard to the action of the Central Committee in preferring Capt. M. A. Osborn as candidate for Joint Representative, and there being two Republican candidates before the people, viz: Capt. Osborn and Capt. Martin, and Whereas, it is the wish of the Central Committee, that the will of the people be respected, and disclaiming any intention of thwarting their will or forestalling their action, therefore,

Resolved, That we refer the question of Joint Representative to the people, their preference to be expressed at the ballot box on the 2nd Tuesday in October next."

Osborn's Veracity.
The following correspondence shows the means resorted to by M. A. Osborn to deceive the people, of Hendricks county, into voting for him. He is certainly making for himself an unenviable reputation.

CAPT. MARTIN TO J. F. DARNALL.
Cloverdale, Ind., Sept. 23rd, 1870.
J. Frank Darnall, Esq., Greencastle.—Dear Sir: In Joint discussion with M. A. Osborn, at Amo, Hendricks county, on the 20th inst., I cited you as one of my Republican supporters in this county. Osborn denied the truth of the statement, saying that it was a slander upon you, and that I had no respectable Republican supporters in Putnam county. To settle this question of veracity, will you be kind enough to give me explicit answers to the following questions, with permission to publish the same:

1st. Do you support me for the position of Joint Representative?

2nd. Did you previous to the 20th inst., inform Mr. Osborn that you intended to oppose him for the above position, and that you did not recognize him as a Republican nominee?

3rd. What is the character of my Republican support in this county, so far as your knowledge extends?

Very truly yours,
H. B. MARTIN.
MR. DARNALL'S REPLY.
Greencastle, Ind., Sept. 24th, 1870.
Capt. H. B. Martin, Cloverdale.—Dear Sir: Yours of 23rd is received. It is very strange to me, indeed, that there should be any question as to my position in regard to the Osborn-Martin controversy. My position has never been equivocal, and I am well assured, sir, that no one knows this fact better than Capt. Osborn; not that I am vain enough to believe it a matter of great consequence, whether I am for the one or the other. I shall answer your questions in the manner in which they are presented:

1st. Do you support me for the position of Joint Representative? Ans. I do.

2nd. Did you previous to the 20th inst., inform Mr. Osborn that you intended to oppose him for the above position, and that you did not recognize him as a Republican nominee? Ans. I told Mr. Osborn previous to the 20th inst., that I did not recognize him as a Republican nominee, and could not support him.

3rd. What is the character of my Republican support in this county, so far as your knowledge extends? Ans. It is composed of as good and true men as we have in the party.

This was voted down, but there were not ten votes against it, and there were more than two votes for it.

Again, the facts are misrepresented in regard to Capt. Osborn's letter. Radical says, "Capt. Osborn, Republican candidate for Joint Representative, sent in a letter which was read, declaring his willingness to submit to a convention if the Committee saw fit to call one." What are the facts? Capt. Osborn's letter is as follows:

"GREENCASTLE, IND., Sept. 15th, 1870.
To the Republican Central Committee of Putnam County:—
Gentlemen.—If you think it better for the interest of the Republican party in our county to call a convention to nominate a county ticket and a candidate for Joint Representative, I shall cheerfully submit to your decision, and will abide by the action of such convention. Respectfully, MILTON A. OSBORN."

But how, Mr. "Radical," do you dispose of the conditions in the letter—"Call a convention to nominate a county ticket, &c.?" I will submit, "Radical's" entire letter is like many articles of merchandise that has had stock in it, it will not bear the light of investigation; consequently, it is sent away from home, under a false brand, to be used in the retail trade.

Now, Mr. Editor, you will please pardon me for occupying so much space in your columns, yet there are one or two things more that I desire to say, and I am done.

The Osborn-Martin controversy in this county is a square Republican quarrel, and as good men as the party affords are arrayed on each side. Aside from the question of men, the issue to be settled is, shall the Central Committee, when they see fit, make nominations for the Republican party, or shall the masses of the party have a voice in controlling its nominations? Those of us who see fit to differ with the action of the Central Committee, have been schooled too long in the principles of Republicanism to bow as humble supplicants at the feet of power. We know no master but the voice of the people. We cherish, we love, we revere the principles of the Republican party, and whilst it is not ours to stand upon its walls as shining lights, we hope to be permitted, to the extent of our ability, to prevent encroachments upon its honored usages.

FRANK DARNALL.

Joint Representative—the Situation.
Mr. Editor—Permit me through the columns of your paper to say a few words to the Republicans of Putnam and Hendricks counties; hoping a word from one whose Republicanism has never been called in question, with an ardent desire that the unity of the party may be preserved, and whatever seeming difficulties may at present stand in the way in regard to men, be so harmonized, that when the present contest is ended, we may again greet each other as belonging to that glorious old Republican party whose history will ever live in the memory of a grateful people. Having been a careful observer of passing events, I think I am prepared to look at the situation without prejudice, favor, or affection.

Then, what are the facts? We have two candidates for Joint Representative: Capt. Osborn and Capt. Martin. Both of them sound Republicans. Both of them entered the service as Douglas Democrats, and served faithfully and well, as soldiers, during the late war, and since that time each of them have received from the Republican party the welcome plaudit, "well done thou good and faithful servant." As to qualification for the position to which they aspire, either of them are gentlemen of average ability. Now, what claims have they to our votes? Capt. Osborn's claims are based upon the fact that the Central Committee gave him the nomination, and, therefore, entitles him to the support of Republicans. Capt. Martin claims that the usages of the party have not been followed, the action of the Committee irregular, and it would establish an unwelcome precedent; and as a representative of those who do not recognize the right of a Central Committee to make nominations for them, places himself before us.

Now, these are the simple, unvarnished facts, disguise them as we may, and it is not worth while for either side to blow or bluff, for he who does not know that both sides are represented by as good men as our party or community affords, must be oblivious to all passing events. Evidently, matters are thus to remain. It would be time spent in vain to tell what should have been done. Wisdom teaches us to do with things as we find them. "The people are honest," and if left untrammelled will do right. There is no adage truer than the one—"The leaders of the people cause them to err." Party leaders sometimes assume that the masses are not capable of meeting great emergencies. When tried, they are seldom found wanting. Then, what is our duty as Republicans? Simply go to the polls as American citizens, and whichever you prefer to represent you, Capt. Osborn or Capt. Martin, vote for him, and don't forget that your brother Republican who may see proper to vote differently, has the same right to determine his vote as you. This question has no right to be a bar of fellowship. It is not in the creed of the Republican party to say we shall vote for either Capt. Osborn or Capt. Martin, we may vote for either and be Republicans. The Republican party belongs to neither. It belongs to no ring, clique, caucus, or set of men who would be office-holders or otherwise. It is a compound of the free, intelligent, thinking masses, that can not long be fettered. Shall we proscribe those who vote differently? Then we are the tyrants. Come, then, let us reason together. Vote as we believe will best subserve our common interest, and when the decision is rendered at the ballot box, in cheerful obedience bow to the will of the people.

A REPUBLICAN OF '56 AND '70.

Special Correspondence of the Banner.

The Monroe County Fair.
We had the pleasure of attending the annual exhibition of this Fair, held last week on their grounds near Bloomington. The grounds are a mile out of town, well selected for drainage and shade, with an artesian well or fountain of water, which supplies an abundance of that necessary fluid, in its refreshing coolness, for man and beast.

On the side of the track, and opposite the judge's stand, was erected a substantial and commodious amphitheatre, to which an admission fee of ten cents was charged. Thousands were thankful for this retreat from the dust and fatigue of the day, and cheerfully contributed their mite to pay for its erection. The building served at the same time for the display of pianos and organs, and furnished an audience for those who wished to show their skill in music. Under the seats were arranged the carriages and buggies, that were entered for premiums.

Floral Hall had its usual attractions. Among them we noticed some splendid photographs, executed by J. B. Allison, who took the first premium last year.

They had some good stock on the ground, especially horses and "rooters." The premiums on fast ring were too small to draw any celebrated fast stock, yet there was considerable interest taken in the races.

The entries were far more numerous than at any preceding fair, and, notwithstanding the efforts of the officers to accommodate all, many had to find shelter for their stock at neighboring barns and stables.

There were several side shows in the enclosure, in one of which was a steam man that walked down hill with facility. In another were two steam engines, made entirely of glass. Our fellow-citizen, the enterprising Capt. Skelton, was on hand with a refreshment stand.

The Fair was generally regarded as a great success. In the awarding of premiums, there was the usual dissatisfaction, and it was quite common to hear these questions coupled together—"Who got the premium?" "Well, who deserved it?"

There seemed to be a general desire upon the part of committee-men to keep the premiums at home. This, however, was no fault of the management of the Fair. J. September 28th, 1870.

War Notes.
More victories for the Prussians and continued reverses for the French. Toul has capitulated. Skirmishing around Paris continues with varying results. Communication is entirely cut off. Some severe fighting has taken place, resulting in favor of the Prussians. The French troops seem to be demoralized.

Bazaine on Friday made a sortie from Metz, in a supposed attempt to escape to Thionville, but was defeated and driven back. A number of Prussians were captured, but were immediately released. Bazaine probably having no place to keep them. McMahon is alive again and has turned up at Wisbaden.

Strasbourg surrendered yesterday, with 400 officers and 17,000 men.

The terms of peace offered by Prussia, France rejects, so that the war is to be fought to the bitter end.

A dispatch from Berlin says the movement for a German Empire is rapidly gaining favor, and will probably be accomplished as soon as peace is made. There is also a desire, amounting to a determination, that peace shall be made on Prussia's own terms in the Tuilleries, just as France has made peace in Berlin.

Russia is threatening to invade Turkey, and there may be war in that quarter.

The Russian Prince Imperial contemplates a visit to the United States next Spring.

Census returns show that throughout the kingdom of Prussia Protestantism is on the gain. During the last nine years the number of Roman Catholics in Pomerania and the Saxon provinces has positively decreased, and there is not a single district in which their increase is proportionate to the growth of the population.

A recent report of the Bureau of Statistics exhibits the total number of immigrants who arrived in the United States during the fiscal year ended June 30th, 1870, and their nationalities. The total immigration amounts to 387,098. The German States have furnished 222,648 immigrants; next in number is Great Britain, 104,683; Ireland, 56,996. The British North American Possessions have furnished 40,403; China, 15,740; Sweden and Norway, 56,659. France has furnished only 4,005. The males are generally in great disproportion to the females; for instance, from the German States there are 49,621 females; from Sweden and Norway, 10,350; from Italy there are 2,132 males and only 759 females. In this regard, however, China takes the lead, since of the 15,740 immigrants there were only 1,116 females.

New Postal cars have just been put on the I. & St. L. railroad, for the purpose of introducing the new Postal System on that line, by which all through mails are made up or distributed on the train to all parts of the country instead of being thrown into Post-offices for distribution as is now the case. The new system requires two route agents in each car, one to distribute papers and one letters, which will necessitate the appointment of four new agents or the transfer of agents from other lines. These agents will receive $1,400, and second clerks, $1,200 a year. The salary of route agents under the old system was $800 a year. On the Vandalia railroad, the wages of route agents have already been raised to $1,140 per annum.—T. H. Mail.

The census of Illinois has been completed, and the population is 2,567,032. In 1860 the population was 1,711,954, showing a gain of 855,078, or 50 per cent.

The vomito is raging terribly at Barcelona, Spain. Seventy thousand people have fled from the city. The disease was brought from Cuba.

DIED.

Mr. Priest—Monday afternoon, at his residence in Mr. Priest's death was sudden. Last Thursday he complained of not feeling well, and on Friday his left side became paralyzed.

He gradually grew worse until Monday afternoon, when the spirit took its flight.

He had generally enjoyed good health throughout his long life. For twenty-four years he had been a citizen of this county.

He was a soldier of the war of 1812, and was captured by the Indians at the battle of the River Raisin. He was much esteemed by a large circle of friends, who mourn him as a kind neighbor and good man, and his funeral drew them together in large numbers to pay their last sad testimony of respect to the departed. Mr. Priest was a member of the Baptist Church. His wife and a number of children, all of whom are married, survive him.

TOWNSEND.—Monday night, in this city, of dropsy, Luke Townsend, aged about 70 years.

Uncle Luke, as he was familiarly called, was a colored man, and was formerly a slave of James Townsend, of Kentucky, by whom he was set free. He soon afterwards came to this State, first settling at Putnamville near forty years ago. From there he came to this place, where he has since lived, respected by all who knew him. He was a member of Simpson Chapel since the society was first organized, and his religion was made manifest by his daily walk and conversation. He was poor, and belonged to a persecuted race, but he is now gone where poverty is unknown, and where race makes no distinction. He leaves a family.

The funeral services took place yesterday at Putnamville, where the remains were interred. Rev. A. A. Brown officiated, assisted by Rev. Ransom Hawley. A large audience was present.

Southard & Bowman

Have determined to sell goods for CASH. We will continue accounts with our customers up to October 15th next; after that date we will sell goods for cash or good trade, and no accounts will be extended or credit given after that date. Believing this will be best for all parties, we give this timely notice. We are very thankful to our friends for past favours, and hope our new system will benefit all.

We will spare no pains to please our customers and friends with the best and cheapest goods. We will not be undersold.

We have a large lot of goods which we will sell at cost, and a small lot of Shoes and Hats which we will sell largely below cost to close out.

We hope all will call and see our stock. Don't FAIL TO CALL. We intend to try and make it to your

Hoofland's German Bitters,

Hoofland's German Tonic,

Hoofland's Podophyllin Pill,

Hoofland's Greek Oil.

Hoofland's German Bitters,

A Bitters without Alcohol or Spirits of any kind.

Is different from all others. It is composed of the pure juices of VITAL PRINCIPLE OF ROOTS, HERBS, and BARKS (or as medicinally termed, extracts), the worthless or inert portions of the ingredients not being used. Therefore, in one bottle of this Bitters there is contained as much medicinal virtue as will be found in several gallons of ordinary mixtures.

The Roots, &c., used in this Bitters are grown in Germany, their vital principles extracted in that country by a scientific Chemist and forwarded to the manufactory in this city, where they are compounded and bottled. Containing no spirituous ingredients, this Bitters is free from the objections urged against all others; no desire for stimulants can be induced from their use, they cannot make drunkards, and cannot, under any circumstances, have any but a beneficial effect.

Hoofland's German Tonic

Was compounded for those not inclined to extreme bitters, and is intended for use in cases when some alcoholic stimulant is required in connection with the Tonic properties of the Bitters. Each bottle of the Tonic contains one bottle of the Bitters, combined with pure SANTA CROIX, and flavored in such a manner that the extreme bitterness of the Bitters is overcome, forming a preparation highly agreeable and pleasant to the palate, and containing the medicinal virtues of the Bitters. The price of the Tonic is $1.50 per bottle, which many persons think too high. They must take into consideration that the stimulant used is guaranteed to be of a pure quality. A poor article could be furnished at a cheaper price, but it is not better to pay a little more and have a good article? A medicinal preparation should contain none but the best ingredients, and they who expect to obtain a cheap comound will most certainly be cheated.

Natural Artificial help to the eye ever known. They are ground under their own supervision, from minute Crystal Pebbles, melted together, and derive their name, "Diamond," on account of their hardness and brilliancy.

The Scientific Principle
On which they are constructed brings the core or center of the lens directly in front of the eye, producing a clear and distinct vision, as in the natural, healthy sight, and preventing all unpleasant sensations, such as glimmering and watering of sight, dizziness, &c., peculiar to all others in use.
They are Mounted in the Finest Manner,
